From The Crown

Unto the people of the Outlands and the Known World, Artan and Aziza, the Twentieth King and Queen of the Outlands send greetings in this festive month of May in the tenth year of the Sovereignty of the Outlands.

Fair Gentles,

It is Our hope that this letter reaches each of you as you prepare for a glorious and prosperous summer.

We congratulate Irel and Ileana, Our new Crown Prince and Princess and heirs to the Stag's Crown of the Outlands. May they have a peaceful and fulfilling reign.

We thank Countess AElflaed and Baroness Katherine Holford for all of the wonderful things they have done for Us this reign, from organizing Our court and helping with paperwork to making sure we were fed, housed and well attended wherever we went. We also thank Lady Mina, Mistress Sarah, Melinda, and Lady Rowanne for all of the assistance given to Her Majesty as well as for helping out constantly with young William. We thank Sir Lavan, Lord Martino and Our equerries Lord Cameron and The Honorable Lord Blaise, for all of their assistance behind the scenes. We thank Master Walter who was exceptional as Blue Iris Herald. We were proud of the Queen's guard who helped out immeasurably, and lightened the burdens.

We wish to commend to you Our subjects Mistress Branwynn Ottersby, the newest Mistress of the Laurel, and Master Tamelane, Our newest Master of the Laurel. Congratulations to you both.

We wish to congratulate Master Walter and Mistress Fiachra, the Baron and Baroness of Caerthe who were invested at Crown Tournament. May their time as the coronet of Caerthe be prosperous and fruitful. Huzzah Caerthe!

We thank the Barony of al-Barran and Countess Kathryn of Iveragh for helping Us out at the last minute and hosting May's Coronation. We are in your debt.

We at this time invite everyone to come share in the coronation and ascension to the throne of Our heirs on May eleventh in Our Barony of al-Barran. Remember Coronation Court will be held at nine in the morning, so please be prompt.

An award of arms is often the finest award in a person's life, marking the day he or she is given a title. We have noticed a marked rise in the use of the phrase "M'Lady/M'lord" with names. While these are perfectly good forms of address (without a name) if the speaker is unsure as to the name or status of the person being spoken to, it is very incorrect to use them as titles before a name. One should never say or write "m'lady Jane", it is just "Jane". Being addressed by the titles Lord and Lady is the privilege of those with Awards of Arms.

Thank you all for the wonderful respect and support you have shown Us during this reign. The people of the Outlands are by far the greatest in all the thirteen Kingdoms.

May you have peace in your hearts and contentment in your lives.

From The Crown Prince and Princess

Greetings good gentles of our fine kingdom.

Let us start out by thanking all of the gentles who offered their kind congratulations and well wishes at the recent Crown Lists. Your warmth and generous offers were very welcome.

To their Majesties Artan V and Aziza, our sincere thanks for their gracious words of advice and council for the months ahead.

We are looking forward to meeting a the great numbers of the new faces the Outlands has gained in recent times. We would especially like to here from the many artisans which are so numerous in our lands. If you are an artisan and would like to see your works shown and distributed throughout the kingdom and the known world, please contact us as soon as may be convenient for you.

We are also looking for gentles who would have the time and the inclination to aid us as retinue. We have a number of good folk in mind but are always open to suggestions. The work will be great but hopefully fun will be had by all. Your service would be greatly appreciated.

On to more of the business aspect of the upcoming months. His Excellency Lambert de Sur, Kingdom Seneshcal has expressed a desire to pass on his office. We would like to have letters from those gentles who would be interested in this most important office. Please send letters to ourselves and his excellency if you would do service to the Outlands as her seneschal. His excellency and ourselves would like to see a smooth transition of this office in the next two months, so a timely response would be prudent.

Regarding the upcoming Crown Lists. (Gee, didn't we just do this!) After consulting with their Majesties, I have decided to open the list as was done for the most recent tournament. That is entrants will be able to enter the tournament up to the day of the lists. I would ask for two things though.

The first being of great import. GET YOUR HERALDRY AND NAME SUBMISSIONS IN EARLY!!! I can't emphasis this enough. Especially since I was probably one of the worst offenders of this on the last tournament. If you are even remotely thinking about fighting or being fought for get your submissions in now. You don't have much time already!!!!!!

The second is a minor change that will help me prepare for the lists. I would ask for letters of INTEREST. THESE ARE NOT LETTERS OF INTENT. I would just like to see who might be interested. These letters will be confidential and no list will be published at any time. We think the surprise of the day is great fun, but would like some time to ponder upon those who would lead the Outlands into the future. If you have any questions regarding this please feel free to contact ourselves.

Also remember that should you prove victorious on that day you would be Prince and Princess for a longer time. Please prepare yourselves for this.

In service to the glorious Outlands,

Irel — Irel

Ileana — Ileana

These are the bouts fought in the Outlands Crown Tournament held in the Barony of Caerthe on April 13, A.S. XXX (1996). The Lists were fought single fight, double elimination. Final round fought best 2-out-of-3.

With the Splendour of Spring's arrival, May the blessings good spirits and prosperous times be upon all how read there words. Greetings from Sir David Shmuel ben Rachon, OL.

With the Grand Outlandish soon to be upon us at month's end, it is important to share with you the detailed plans for the upcoming Page School. This program is open to all boys and girls ages 11 to 16. (There will be other activities for younger children provided at Outlandish as well). This program has been created to offer a wide variety of activities and experiences that are both fun and challenging. There will be workshops in boffer fighting (how-to make proper weapons & armor, rules of list and conventions of fighting), period games, SCA songs, heraldry (to include period manners and protocol), leather pouch making, drumplay and a Community Service Project (which will benefit everyone at Outlandish). In addition, the Page School participants will be in charge of running the Annual Boffer Tourney on Sunday morning. If anyone wishes to dinoate prizes for this tourney, please pass then along to Lord Adam or bring them by the Page School tent on site.

Those of you who wish to participate may want to bring some items to help make your experience more fun. If you have access to a recorder, a drum, or other musical instruments that you are allowed to bring—please do so. If you have paint and brushes for the heraldry workshop, or leather for pouch making please bring it along. Those who do not have these items do not worry. We will do all we can to provide those for you, but if you do have them it will make things easier for the rest of the group. For the boffer fighting workshop please bring materials for making boffer weapons; i.e.: 1 inch PVC pipe, foam, duct tape, and any other materials that you usually use to make your weapons with. Also bring all of your armor with you as well, plus any materials that you may wish to use to make a suit of boffer armor.

If you have period games that you wish to share with the other kids, bring them along, as well.

A complete schedule of events will be published in the Grand Outlandish handbook available at the Troll Booth. If anyone is interested in teaching a workshop or just wants to help with the School, please feel free to contact Lord Adam or myself. All help will be appreciated. We do have some immediate needs for anyone wishing to donate materials and supplies. For the heraldry workshop, we will be painting small shield blanks. We have a need for wooden blanks. They can be as small as 7" X 9" or 12" X 12". We also have a need for paint and brushes. We are also looking for a recorder teacher who may be interested in teaching a beginners class in recorder and may have some extra recorders to share.

Thank you for your attention in this matter. I look forward to seeing all of you at Outlandish and at the Page School. Shalom!

Brigands 8

May 24-27

Finally, your Winters fasting is over, my friends.

Tis time to soothe your adventure starved souls with all the merriment and mayhem befitting any gentle whos heart yearns to dream again. Long nights, we've spent, assembling a varied collection of activities sure to leave warm memories long after this weekend has come and gone. Once more will eager hands wield the tools of battle as our drowsy minds awake renewed. So read on, my friends, and see what lies in store for you as the Summer winds begin to blow and the Northern Outlands has his first camping event of the season!

Site: The "Unclaimed lands" (known in Mundania as Crow Valley campground in the Pawnee National Grasslands) is just a short swallows flight from Briggsdale Co. Newly renovated, this sites amenities shall include: permanent non-flush toilets (3 stations), 4 potable water hydrants, 1 large picnic/BBW area, 3 smaller picnic areas with tables, braisers and a permanent fire pit each, a new Quiet camping area and greatly expanded parking!! Though there is a small grocery store in tow, restaurants, stores and medical facilities are 30 miles away in Ault (see map). Traditionally, weather varies from 60's-80's, during the day and lows of 30's-40's at night. There is, generally, a rain storm sometimes during the event (about 2 hours) and conditions have sometimes become more severe than the norm, so please plan accordingly. Alas, since the areas we use have become camping by reservation only space, we'll not be sharing our land with any mundanes. Additionally, we say a fond farewell to the Audobon Society, as they have now chosen to have their event on the weekend after ours. Please do not misunderstand, just because we have more control over our area does not mean we have complete control over the entire campground (there is still a small, semi-separated mundane area nearby), so please respect their privacy as well.

Site Rules/restrictions: Campfires only in designated fire pits-any use of fire in your camp must be accompanied by a fire extinguisher, kept in plain sight-all unattended flames must and will be extinguished-pets must be leashed at all times and be moderately well behaved around strangers. NOISE/DRUMMING CURFEWS-Quiet area: 10 pm, Main area: 12 Midnight

Feast Fee – Adults (age 12+) $3, Children (6-12) $1.50, Under 6 are free!

Adult feasters will be expected to bring a side dish that will feed 6 hungry fighters. (Note: Site and feast must be paid separately at troll, apologies for any inconvience.)

Boffer: There will be a childs boffer tournament on Saturday with 3 different age groups. All weapons must be approved by marshall of tourney!

Bardic: There will be a bardic Saturday night with a very nice prize for the winner!

"Cock o' the walk" tournament: bring fighting, fencing and archery weapons and armor. Best score out of all three wears the hat!

Merchants: "Listen to your good sense and journey to Brigands to apply your trade. A donation of one of your wares gets you free site for two!" For an information packet, call the Merchant-O-Crat.

Volunteers: Those brave enough to volunteer a small amount of their time to help us out will find themselves rewarded with tickets (1 ticket=1 hour) for the drawing at closing court on Sunday.

(Autocrats note: Due to land impact concerns, there has been a limit set for the amount of campers in the main area. Although it is unlikely we will reach this limit, I must tell you that if you want a choice spot, you'd better arrive before midnight on Friday evening, otherwise you may have to camp in the quiet area.)

If your spirit yearns for combat, feasting, barding or just reminiscing with old friends across a campfire, make plans for BRIGANDS, the Canton of Hawks Hollow will be there to great you!

Directions To Site: Take your best route to Ault, CO, then gravel east on Hwy. 14 for a little over 30 miles. Look for the only town, this distance, next to the road and keep an eye out for the junction to the north (look for the couple of run down buildings, near the corner of the junction. IF YOU MAKE IT TO BRIGGSDALE, YOU HAVE GONE TOO FAR! At the junction, turn north and travel about a half (.5) mile until you see the driveway with the cattle guard to the west. 2) Include two(2) self-addressed-stamped postcards. These will be used to verify that I have received your final request and that I have sent your final packet and instructions to you.

3) Include one(1) self-addressed-stamped,business size envelope with $0.32 cent stamp. This will be used to mail to you your final packet and instructions

4) If you wish to write a note or other information, please include this on a separate piece of paper. If you put it on the above request, i will send it back to you as being not in the proper format and this could cost you a space.

5) If you do not request a space or fail to meet deadlines, do not show up at the war until Sunday August 4th,1996. We will not be dealing with non-registered groups until then.

6) Single campers wishing to be able to set up on August 4th,1996, must comply with the above procedures to be included in the distribution. Special areas will be set aside for this purpose otherwise, wait until Sunday to show up.

7) Electronic reservation is possible this year. If you wish a form please see http://www.Whitebelt.Com/pennsic - you will find a form there in the proper format. Fill out this form and send it to: viscount@whitebelt.Com - you will then be "on the list-as being interested and it will help in the planning - but....Until you send the hard copies you will not be officially registered and will be treated the same as someone who does not register and/or misses the hard copy deadlines. There will be given no preference to those who use the electronic option. This option is a tool to aid in early planning. I assure people that the hardcopy registrations will be treated as the only "official" ones that will determine final count and placement.

WELL, ZOUNDS AND, LIKE, WOW! I NEVER IMAGINED I'D MAKE IT THIS FAR! 30 YEARS... INCREDIBLE!
WHEN IT ALL STARTED I DIDN'T HAVE ONE STONE ATOP ANOTHER. I WAS JUST THE YARD OF A HOUSE IN BERKELY, BUT IT SEEMED LIKE ST. JAMES' COURT!
I COULDN'T GUESS THAT 30 YEARS LATER I'D HAVE 13 KINGDOMS AROUND THE WHOLE WORLD! I GREW FROM A PARTY TO A CASTLE OF DREAMS!
NOW I KNOW THAT I'LL BE AROUND FOR A WHILE, BUT I CAN ONLY GROW BETTER WHEN YOU GIVE YOUR VERY BEST EFFORTS.
ON TO YEAR "MM"!

From the MOAS

Lady Marie d'Acre

Thirtieth Year Celebration in An Tir will be holding numerous Arts & Sciences activities including displays, demos, discussions, meetings, music and dance.

There will also be a "Cultural Forum," where various cultures will be highlighted for discussion. Some already scheduled include: Scottish, Tudor, Middle Eastern & Persian, Russian, Burgundian, Chinese, and many more.

In addition, a display is planned showing the works of artisans of the Known World. There will be a large amount of space available, and photographs of items will also be accepted. For more information on Thirtieth Year activities, please contact your Local A&S Officer.

I am excited to hear that there has been much discussion concerning improvements in A&S Competition rules. Unfortunately, I have received very little feedback directly. If you have any suggestions, for Competitions and Collegiums, contact Mistress Sarah or myself.

In Service to the Outlands,

Marie

From the Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

Some help has finally arrived for all those local chroniclers who my feel (and rightfully so!) that I have neglected them of late. Lady Rivka has agreed to become my deputy for local chronicler affairs. She will be carefully reviewing all of your newsletters, and getting in touch with you about warrants and the like. Please send all local newsletter comp copies to Lady Rivka, not myself. Her address is in the officer's section. She'll pass them along to me when she's looked them over.

Despite this change, please feel free to contact myself or Rivka about any problems or concerns you might have.

I remain,

Alwyn

A New Guild In Caerthe

Have you ever wanted to ride like a knight? Would you like to show off your horseback skills on the Saracen's Head course? Would you like to learn more about the historical role of the horse? If so, you might be interested in the Equestrian Guild of Caerthe! Some of our activities include Pig Sticking, Ring Lancing - and we have just begun to dabble in mounted archery.

We also use horses for mounted "Quests". We study the period and impact of the horse as well as equine "garb". (We do not joust, however.) For a copy of the current newsletter, practice information, etc - please contact Lady Gegu, Guild Head at (303)752-3137, ldydarokin@aol.com or 1041 S. Zeno Way #301 Aurora CO 80017.
